UFEA was just one year old when, 50 years ago, 16 teams from across Europe played the first round of the European Cup. The tournament has grown from strength to strength, especially since 1992 when the tournament was expanded and it became the UEFA Champions League.

I'm sure that all fans of football, young and old wherever they may live, would agree that Football in Europe would be poorer without this annual test of the best of the best.

This souvenir edition of football stickers is designed to commemorate an extraordinary half century, a truly remarkable competition and a preview to more great footballing moments in this anniversary season. I hope you enjoy it.
